If, after studying this Policy document the Insured Person is unhappy with the Policy he/she has purchased, the Insured Person may take advantage of a thirty-one (31) day “cooling off” period. If we persist in our rejection or dispute of the claim after representations have been made, the claimant may consult a lawyer who should institute the action within 180 days or 6 months after the expiration of the 90-day period referred to above to avoid losing their entitlement to claim.

If legal proceedings are not instituted within that time the claimant will no longer be entitled to claim the Benefit under the Policy.
